

Practical 13

Write a user defined function with a name swap() to interchange the values of two variables, say x and y. Call your swap() function from the main() function.